

Mexican CPCs seeking the Canadian CPA Designation

CPA Canada entered an MRA on behalf of all Canadian CPA bodies with the Instituto Mexicano de Contadores Publicos (IMCP) and Comité Mexicano para la Practica Internacional de la Contaduria (COMPIC).

Eligibility Requirements

If you hold a Mexican CPC credential, you may be eligible to obtain the Canadian CPA designation via this MRA if you are a licensee in good standing with the IMCP/COMPIC, and you meet the following additional criteria:

- You hold at least a baccalaureate or higher degree.
- You have passed the Examen Uniforme de Certificacion de la Contaduria Publica (EUC). Mexican CPCs who qualified prior to the introduction of the EUC are grandfathered in by this agreement as having met the examination criteria.
- You hold a public accounting licence (Cedula Profesional) issued by the Direccion General do Profesiones/Secretaria de Educacion Publica.
- You have 30 months of relevant practical experience. Applicants with two years of relevant post-qualification experience are considered to have met the 30-month experience requirement.
- You are in compliance with the Continuing Professional Education (CPE) requirements of the IMCP.

Residency Requirements

Mexican CPCs who are, or have been, Canadian residents must meet additional requirements.

Applicants who wrote one or more parts of the EUC while they were a resident of Canada, after they became a resident of Canada, or after they returned as a resident to Canada, must, in addition to the above eligibility requirements, have obtained either:

- A university degree from a degree-granting institution of higher education in Mexico as a result of having attended the institution in person for classroom instruction on a full-time basis; or
- At least one year of full-time practical experience in accounting in Mexico.

Exclusions

Mexican CPCs who obtained the Mexican CPC credential by qualifying under a reciprocal agreement that IMCP may have with another professional accountancy organization are not eligible under this agreement. This includes all mutual recognition agreements, reciprocal membership agreements, and other similar agreements that the Mexican government may have had at any time.

Pathway to the Canadian CPA Designation for Mexican CPCs

To obtain the Canadian CPA designation, eligible Mexican CPCs must register with CPA Nova Scotia by completing the following steps.

1. Complete the RMA/ MRA International Applicant Form and send it to registrations@cpans.ca.
2. Complete the Request for Certification of Membership with the IMCP and COMPIC, have it certified by IMCP and returned directly to CPA Nova Scotia to registrations@cpans.ca.
 - CPA Nova Scotia will accept confirmation in letter format of the information included in the Request for Certification of Membership with the IMCP and COMPIC, including that you are a member in good standing with IMCP. This confirmation letter must be returned directly to CPA Nova Scotia to registrations@cpans.ca.
3. Provide proof of your legal name as evidenced by acceptable government issued documentation (i.e., passport or citizenship card).
4. Provide a detailed chronological resume listing all relevant work experience.
5. At the time the application is submitted, the applicant must provide evidence of legal entitlement to work in a CPA Canada jurisdiction or be prepared to provide evidence of legal entitlement to work in a CPA Canada jurisdiction within the first two years of membership. Applicants who are not legally entitled to work in a CPA Canada jurisdiction will be granted conditional acceptance based on the requirement to provide evidence within the first two years of membership.
6. Pay the member application fee of $400 plus HST.

In order to maintain membership with CPA Nova Scotia through this agreement, the applicant must successfully complete the CPA Reciprocity Professional Development course (CPARPD) within two years of the applicant's official membership admission date. This course consists of approximately 20 hours of online study in Canadian tax, law, and ethics in modular form. Applicants must register for this course through CPA Nova Scotia. Information will be provided to you at the time of your acceptance to membership. Public accounting licensing applicants who pass the CPA Reciprocity Education and Examination (CPARE) program within two years of obtaining membership with CPA Nova Scotia are not required to also complete the CPARPD.

The information on this form is collected, stored and used in accordance with any privacy legislation in the province to which you are applying, and is collected for the purpose of processing your application for membership. Questions or concerns about the collection and use of the information should be directed to the Privacy Officer of the provincial/regional CPA body of which you are requesting membership. Contact information is available on page 5 of this form.

Complete the form and send to the province/region where you intend to seek registration.
